

Regulatory and Legislative Manager

Are you ready to dive into the exciting world of retail policy and make a real impact on California's economy? The California Retailers Association (CRA) is seeking a dynamic Regulatory and Legislative Manager to join our team in Sacramento!

The CRA is the voice of retail in California, representing an industry that contributes $330 billion to the state's GDP annually and employs a quarter of the state's workforce.

As our Regulatory and Legislative Manager, you'll be at the forefront of shaping policies that affect the retail industry. Your role will include:

- Analyzing and interpreting complex regulations affecting retailers
- Drafting policy briefs and position papers
- Collaborating with our legislative team on lobbying efforts
- Engaging with policymakers and stakeholders to advocate for retail-friendly policies
- Participating in committee meetings and task forces

What we're looking for:

- Bachelor's degree in political science, Public Policy, or related field
- 2-3 years of experience in policy analysis or government relations
- Strong analytical and writing skills
- Knowledge of California's regulatory landscape
- Passion for retail and economic policy

Why join us?

- Be part of a fun, collaborative team making a real difference in California's economy and retail industry
- Develop a diverse skill set in policy analysis, advocacy, and communication
- Work in a fast-paced environment with opportunities for growth and advancement
- Comprehensive benefits package including health, dental, and vision insurance; vacation and paid sick leave.
- Competitive salary based on experience
- Full-time position based in the heart of Sacramento

At CRA, you'll have the opportunity to work on cutting-edge issues like privacy/AI regulations, environmental sustainability, and workforce development while being part of a team that's shaping the future of retail in the world's 5th largest economy!

Join us in our mission to promote, preserve, and enhance the retail industry in California. Apply now and be part of an association that's making history in the Golden State!
